Friend of Sig Taus

Reunion Comments!

This year's Alumni Reunion started for me on Friday night when I went to hear Sig Tau Friend Mike Woods and his band play. Got there a bit late as I had another commitment earlier in the day that also involved having a pint or 3. I don't remember having to rest up between outings when I was younger. The band was great and met many alumni I knew from college back in the day. Bruce and Chuck had already beat feet before I got there (talk about having no endurance!). Saturday noon at the Big Tree went off as usual and it was great seeing the old (not referring to our age) crowd once again. I required a Bloody Mary to get the system back into the swing of the day and a bite to eat. Headed out to the block party which was just starting when we got there and numbers were thin so we went down Bank Street to what is now the Mexican Restaurant where a large group of Middle Guards were stationed outside for a few rounds. It was fun getting together with so many of my new friends in Sig Tau. Chuck presented the Squidstock Tee Shirts and I must say there were amazing. I finally have a Sig Tau shirt that fits! (the old ones seem to have shrunk...).

Back to the block party we went for more of the same and a fantastic time again meeting friends from the college days. Saw Joel Grundy for the first time since college. Had some laughs and conversation. It was Phi Sigs turn at the reunion and they had a good showing. For me this is my favorite reunion time of the year as it is spent with so many of our old friends from college reliving the past and catching up on life's events. I always enjoy our reunions and meeting the newest members who are carrying on the torch but to me this event brings back the best part of our lives with the people who shared it with us. Wish more of our old group would make the summer event as it is all about us and I think they would enjoy the time together more than during some of the other events.

It was my turn to be a wus as the sun got to me a bit and I forgot my meds (welcome to life in your 70's) and checked out early. I am sorry I couldn't stay longer as I was having a blast. Can't wait until next year when hopefully we will have many the truly "OLD GUARD" to celebrate the founding once again. To those who relive those days through Chuck's Newsletters get your ass there. We may never have another chance to be a group again and I promise you will be eternally grateful you made the effort!

OK Chuck – now did I earn my Tee Shirt? (You earned that a long time ago, Dear Webmaster!)

Dave Mead (P '65, Q'68: Sig Tau Webmaster)

Joanne Agresta (Ago, Q '80) We had a wonderful time at the reunion. Caught up with Sig Taus Ira Shinske and Richie Kuhn. two of my all-time favorites. Got to get reintroduced to Kelly's and some Foosballs Ate Aunt Cookies Sub and reminisced. Even sent hugs out to our sisters everywhere. I'll take a shirt please 🗣️👍👤🚢 Love in AK Phi Chuckles.....Here's my "minimum of 40 words" so that you will no longer vent your wrath on me.

Reunion weekend 2017 was a ball. First, we were blessed with beautiful BEAUTIFUL weather which reminded me of those summer days back in the '60's when the drinking age was 18 and we all celebrated the coming of spring with delicious gin and tonics on the front porch of the Big Tree, when the Big Tree had a front porch the entire length of the building. Back in those heady days the Big Tree was mission control of all things Sig Tau.

I went with founder Jack Sheehan's widow, Kathe who was celebrating her 50th and her beau John. The brunch on Saturday was a highlight not only because they asked us to sit at the President's table but because one of Kathe and my favorite professors, Dr. Bruce B. Klee and his wife Dolly were also at that table. Dr. Klee directed Kathe in "Streetcar Named Desire". He directed me in "Lysistrata". And he directed both of us in "The Lark". He was a wonderful director, a fun and funny man and a notable example to all of us, as was his wife Dolly who frequently arranged bridge parties (like in cards) and dinner parties for the students. They are a lovely couple and it was a delight to see them again.

It was also a delight to return to Letchworth Park and remember some of the great times out there. Our big senior week picnic was there. And so was Dr. Klee. And to remember some of the wonderful midsummer dinners over the years at the Glen Iris Inn.

And finally, I took Sig Tau Friend Patty Fennell's advice and visited the arboretum. Wow!!! Anyone who hasn't done so should take a tour.

We graduated from quite a school. All the fine arts buildings are now named after favorite professors I had when I was there. And of course, the biggest fun was to meet the Sig Taus from all ages all over town. If you don't get back to these events, you really should try. Lots of fun and lots of memories. Thanks Charles, for keeping us all up to date on all the activities and for always introducing us to people we don't know. What a wonderful way to kick off the summer.

Hey Chuck!

Part of the reason I personally look forward to and read EVERYTHING you send is because it makes me feel good! Bottom line, you make me feel connected to the fraternity. My college years and specifically my years in ETY were some of the best times in my life and the friendships I made and still have are so important and special to me.

You shouldn't feel like you have the shoulder all the burden though. It shouldn't be this difficult. I can't see how brothers don't enjoy the emails and the newsletters. At least you are trying. I know me and many others that I keep in touch with enjoy everything you do so keep it coming. Our group of what we started to call the "Middle Guard" will continue to come to the summer reunions where we can remind each other of our college antics while making new memories to be relived and reflected upon in upcoming years. I am very glad that I have had a chance to meet you and to be able to call you friend and brother. It is proof that the ETY bond is strong and can span decades & generations. (Rob at Reunion 2017)

Be well

(Smooth) Rob Donley (P '89, G '91)

P.S. you can use this as my contribution to the newsletter and reunion recap.

P.S.S. The current brothers really have no place in being so critical of us alumni. I haven't seen many of them at the summer reunions nor have I been contacted by any active members in the decades since I left Geneseo. It would be nice if the current brothers tried to reach out to alumni but they don't and haven't for a very long time.

(Rob! See the comment at the very end of this Newsletter about the "current brothers!")

It was great as always to get together with the "boys in blue." As we have every year, we started the weekend with a drive from Long Island to Westchester to Geneseo. While the drive is long, it's not long enough for all the reminiscing about pledging, parties and the Sig Tau house, particularly Homecoming 1990, when we took turns trying to roll a tire down Court Street from the front of the Sig Tau house (10 Court). A big "thank you" to Brother Micky O'Brien for driving us. We'll miss you on the drive next year, Mick. Best of luck with your move to N.C.!

Upon arriving in Geneseo, we wasted no time getting to the new Kelly's. While it's brighter and bigger (and has better bathrooms), it still felt like the original. Next stop was the Idle Hour, which still looks like it did nearly 30 years ago. We then moved on to the Big Tree, where Brother Kevin Foody and I had the pleasure of getting introduced by our favorite journalist (Chuck!) to one of the founding brothers, Mr. Bruce Jordan. Meeting Bruce and hearing about the fraternity in its early days was definitely a highlight of the weekend.

Saturday's block party was a wonderful time as usual. For those who remember the liquor store (and one-eyed Ronnie) directly across the street from the Idle, that space is now a bar. Also, it was impressive to see the considerable number of Phigs who attended their 65th reunion. I hope our attendance for our 55th anniversary next year is equally as impressive. Start asking for permission now!

While we may be getting older, our friendships have stood the test of time, and for that I will always be grateful. Go Blue!

Et Cetera Comments

Chuck,

Writing this on behalf of some current brothers and grads of recent years that I keep in touch with. We all read your last email about the newsletter and your impending retirement. We are hoping your retirement has nothing to do with that fked up email that someone wrote. Whoever wrote it is clearly a pk and has no appreciation for you and the time you put in to keeping everyone in touch and up to date with the alumni network. We all appreciate what you do and would hope that you'd keep doing it for as long as you can, like you had always said you would. (I'll try for a few more years, Dylan!) In other news, I got in touch with Alex Drainville who's a good friend and I think he's going to write something for the newsletter (he's a good writer [and a bit of a grammar Nazi]). I also think he'd be a great candidate for the next editor of the newsletter. Anyway, we just thought someone should touch base and let you know we appreciate you and would hate to see you go. If I find some time I'll write something up for the newsletter. Here's hoping you're in good health and the plantar fasciitis hasn't been acting up again.

(Thanks, it's slowly getting better!) (That's Dylan on the right! Next to Bob Hussey (Charter Member '63, Graduate '67))

Best,

Dylan Gallagher (P '13, G '16)

(Dylan! See the comment at the very end of this Newsletter about the "that email!")

Hi Chuck,

It was great to see you even for such a brief time at the Reunion. You work so hard and put in an inordinate amount of personal time to keep all the Sig Tau Brothers connected and not just the Founding Fathers. It's amazing how you stay in the information loop with brothers from all years and how frequently and thoroughly you communicate with hundreds of Sig Tau Alumni and friends of Sig Tau! Your style of writing is funny, direct, personal and sensitive to whatever news you are sharing. Thank you for including me often with memories and, of course, they have made me laugh. If/When you do cease to produce the Newsletter, you will be missed! (Thanks, Betty! I've reconsidered and plan on keeping everything going for as long as I am fit!)

Even though you have emphatically sent the notice that you are relinquishing your position as Newsletter Master, the enclosed Lamron has news about Sig Taus. Now may be the time to switch from Newsletter Master to Sig Tau Historian—I think that would be perfect fit for you especially since you holistically know more about the organization from its inception than anyone else. Do with this whatever you want---within bodily comfort—it is yours to keep or whatever.

Other than the painful and annoying conditions you have mentioned, I hope that otherwise you are well and happy and doing stimulating things in life.

Fondly,

Betty Walrath (Phil Lamb Founder '64, Graduation '66) [Widow of Founder Dahn Walrath G, 66]

Regatta under way

Registration for the third annual Sig Tau Junkyard Regatta has been scheduled for Thursday and Friday, May 12 and 13 in the College Center. The Regatta will be held at 1 p.m. on Saturday, May 14.

The only major deviation from last year's rules is that no more than eight people may man any one craft. There is a 50 cent registration fee per person on each craft.

Sig Tau holds the Junkyard Regatta each year on the second Saturday in May. It is a contest between homemade crafts over a course on Hemp's Pond.

Each of the contestants must consume an allotted amount of beer or coke before getting on his craft and must polish off some more brew during the course of the race.

Among those who have already committed themselves to starting are Tim Drago and Pete Matthews, winners of the Regatta for the past two years.

Immediately after the regatta, the traditional Jenny awards will be presented to worthy individuals and groups at the M&B. Replacing Bruce Jordan and Jack Sheehan as MC's will be Don Fuller and "Jimbo" Burk.

Chuck.... ignore the negative noise, however nominal it is.... I speak for the 78-82 (+/-) crowd, your emails are ALWAYS welcome. Your dogged effort does make a bunch of us shake our heads but out of total respect for your commitment and diligence.

Mike Burns (P '78, G '82)

(Mike! See the comment at the very end of this Newsletter about the "negative nose!")

Well Charles! You finally got something out of me. I truly appreciate all that you do for the Fraternity and enjoy your news items. I hope you keep it up and as I believe you said in the '60's, don't let the bastards get you down. Just do what you can. Thanks again!

Dan Kwarta (P '63 Founding Group, G '67)

Hi Chuck!

I wanted to thank you for the Squidstock tee shirt. Very cool designed shirt. Also Liked reading the history behind the concept. I will be wearing it. I hope to be in Geneseo for next reunion or our next get together in Rochester. I'm feeling much better, it's been 8 weeks. Just got off a week of vacation well deserved. Thanks again for everything you do for Sig Tau.

Brother "Dugs" Dave Dugan (P '86, G '88)

Chuck,

Sheesh! No good deed goes unpunished. Us old guys do appreciate your work and know your passion for it. If the statement ..."pry it from my cold dead hand" were true of anything it could not be truer than when the time comes, retrieving the Newsletter from you for your successor. I mean this in the most loving way. You are correct, the young-uns will one day appreciate their forefathers more than they do today. We won't be here to appreciate it, but you can rest assured you are doing and have done some job others would not undertake. They love the reports, but they would not dedicate themselves to creating it as you have for years. To my knowledge you are not a journalist nor a pamphleteer. Therefore, yours is regardless of how well done, yours is the work of a dedicated "amateur". It won't be perfect and those expecting more are foolish ingrates.

Perhaps the "complaining party ought to volunteer his time to assist you several days each quarter. Or, maybe the Fraternity could assign a current member to assist you each semester and over the summer. In this way, they not only get to appreciate the effort, but also develop an appreciation for the history and make up of our 55-year-old organization.

So, dear Brother and friend. I thank you for all you do.

Here's another Irish proverb (my Irish is from my mother, a Kinney from Manor Hamilton, County Leitrim):

"But the greatest love -- the love above all loves,
Even greater than that of a mother...
Is the tender, passionate, undying love,
Of one beer drunken slob for another."

Tom Wega (P '69, Q '71)

(Tom! See the comment at the very end of this Newsletter about the "complaining party!")

Chuck,

Not entirely surprised with your announcement, but would simply like you to know that your toils and tribulations have been greatly appreciated by the majority of those who have received the fruits of your labor. So, as you approach the end of your contributions to the members and our memories of Sigma Tau Psi Alpha, leave with the knowledge and personal satisfaction that you have left an indelible mark upon all of us.

Hopefully someone from the middle or current years will assume your passion and be willing to receive the "torch" that you have offered to pass forward.

Enjoy your attempts to become at least a bogey golfer and if not, remember that there are only two sports of which I am aware in which one measures success by doing less and is willing to pay for that goal--- golf and bowling.

Unfortunately, all I must offer to you is a most sincere and heartfelt "Thank You." (Picture: Al and Patty Smith)

Fraternally,

Al "Smitty" Smith (P '69, Q '72)

Hi Chuck,

I am sorry to hear you are retiring because you have done such an amazing job. Without your efforts, we would never have had the great contacts over the years! I can't imagine how sad that would have been. We forget how lucky we have been and we owe you a huge debt of gratitude!

On the other hand, I'm glad for you and know we will still get together and remain friends thanks to you!

Bob Hussey (Charter Member '63, G '67)

You've done a terrific job, Chuck! Much appreciated by all!

Peter Massari (P '69, G '71)

Hey Chuck,
For record I think your ETY Bulletins are friggin' awesome!! Really enjoy reading them and appreciate all the effort you put into each one. You 'da man brother!
Hope you're well

Tom Meder (P '85 G '86)

Brother Chuck....

You da MAN! I am so impressed with your efforts on the behalf of all the Sig Taus, especially us Old Guard! PLEASE don't pass the effort along.....you do it better than anyone....be patient with us, and know how much we appreciate your challenging work! I also want to apologize.... wife Sue (Sue Spas '68) and I are crazy nuts with volunteer work in the community and attending a reunion etc. was just not workable.... but we love keeping up with your news on line....so THANKS!

Sig Taus Struggle and Recovery from the Late

70's Park Street Incident

As you may recall from last year's Newsletter, the deliberate destruction of the Park Street house that had gotten so much publicity, and the fact that the fraternity was on probation with IFC (Inter Fraternity Council), Sigma Tau Psi struggled for a couple of years after the Park Street Incident. Brothers were scattered all over campus in the dorms, and there was a lack of cohesion. The fraternity's name was being dragged through the mud. The Lamron carried a frontpage story on the entire ordeal in the first issue of the fall 1978 semester. It painted a very negative picture. One condition of the fraternity's continued IFC recognition was that they were required to pay back all the damages to the Leaste's, RG&E, and Rochester Telephone; the fraternity had large bills to pay. Many outsiders thought the fraternity would fold. Dedicated brothers were not prepared to let that happen, however.

The first step in the fraternity's recovery was to pay off all its debts. There were phone and electric bills to pay, left over from the previous school year, and the damages to the Park Street House. Sigma Tau Psi held fund raisers, and work parties to pay off the debts. By early May, Sigma Tau Psi was in the black again.

The next step was to engage in a massive public relations campaign to change the fraternity's image on campus. The fraternity held a Keg Roll for muscular dystrophy, and held a fund drive for cancer research. The biggest event was the Sigma Tau Psi bed race, held on November 5, 1978. The race was held, time trial style, down the roadway from the College Union to the end of Jones Hall and back—right through the center of campus, for publicity. During the event, participants ran right passed a tour guide, showing the campus to prospective students. Teams of five, four runners and one rider were charged 75 cents to enter. The prize was a keg of beer. The event was successful in influencing Sig Tau's image, and received a good deal of coverage in the Lamron. {From Chronicle of Sigma Tau Psi: A History of the Fraternity, published 1997, Editor Brian M. Castelli (Pledged '94, Class of '97), Submitted by Les Arthur (Pledged '67, Class of '69)} (Picture is just "Clip Art", not actual Sig Taus!)

Mike (P '84, G '87) and Sarah Grammatico (G' 88): SUNY Geneseo Alumni Association Distinguished Service Award

Citation read on 6/3/17 at the Champagne Brunch and Awards Presentation during Reunion Weekend:

The SUNY Geneseo Alumni Association Distinguished Service Award recognizes Geneseo graduates who have made exceptional contributions to the Alumni Association and the College. Today we honor Mike and Sarah Grammatico.

Mike earned his bachelor's degree in Accounting from Geneseo in 1987 and was a member of the Sigma Tau Fraternity and Men's Basketball Team. Mike is a Senior Financial Advisor/Vice President at Merrill Lynch in Batavia, NY. Sarah, Class of 1988, earned a Bachelor's in Education majoring in Elementary Education with a focus in reading. Sarah is a second-grade teacher in the Batavia School District. They have three sons—and their middle son, Thomas is a current Geneseo student!

In the time since Mike and Sarah graduated, their involvement with Geneseo has been consistent and impactful. Mike serves on the Roundtable Athletic Association Board, and both Mike and Sarah have been instrumental in soliciting support for the Kelsey A. Annese '16 Memorial Scholarship. Danny Loughran '86, President of the RAA shared "I have seen and appreciated Mike's contribution to the Roundtable Athletic Association, which has drawn on the combination of his love for Geneseo and his vast skills and talents. It was no surprise to me that Mike and Sarah stepped up and went the extra mile to help honor Kelsey, the daughter of Ron Annese, Mike's former basketball teammate, when the Geneseo community was grieving. That showed their true love and support for the Geneseo family."

Bob added:

I know firsthand that so much of the happiness that Sarah and Mike have in life is derived from their selfless service to others and generous support of many charitable causes, including their alma mater. I also know their motivation does not lie in the recognition they are receiving today for their service and generosity.

It is evident that Sarah and Mike are motivated by gratitude – gratitude for Geneseo bringing them together, gratitude for the lifelong friendships that they forged here, and gratitude that the College has remained true to its values – so much so that last year they entrusted to Geneseo the care and education of their son.

It is clear that Mike and Sarah exemplify selflessness, passion and dedication to their alma mater. On behalf of the SUNY Geneseo Alumni Association, I present to them the SUNY Geneseo Alumni Association Distinguished Service Award.

It's Only the Beginning: What it Means to Be Blue After Graduating

By

Alex Drainville (P '13, G '16)

After graduating last year, I wrote an article for the Sig Tau newsletter. Abdicating my place in Sig Tau and in Geneseo, I outlined a memoir of sorts — relishing the absurdities I would likely never experience again. Although the details of debauchery were entertaining to Young Guards, I soon came to find that many did not reciprocate these feelings.

This was understandable; there are arguably some things that should never take to print. But, facing the inevitability of the 'real world,' I funneled my reluctance to join its ranks into Chuck's newsletter. (What would a Sig Tau be though if he were not pushing the envelope?) The farther I moved from graduation and the article's publishing, the harder the real-world set in. I was living at home, my employment was unrewarding, and my liver — well let's leave him out of this. I began to ask myself: why was I in Sig Tau in the first place?

Of course, this is purely dramatization; I've loved every minute of life since I crossed — and probably every minute of pledging even more. But, nothing done standing around a keg was going to benefit me now. That was until alumni weekend of fall '16 when I was introduced to and shared a few drinks with an alumnus from the late 80s, and close friend of Sig Tau. As an owner of an advertising agency — the precise field I strove to join post-graduation — we struck up conversation and ultimately arranged lunch back in Buffalo. It was this at juncture I recognized an intangible benefit to being a part of such a tightly knit band of gentlemen. Our community is an exceptional luxury, (and I'm sure the Old Guard would testify) one that I can lean on in times of need and lend assistance to whenever able.

I currently work with this alumni at his agency, learning a trade that never grants a dull moment and is as challenging as it is enjoyable. I'm fortunate, not just to be where I am, but to have stumbled into an opportunity that dynamically altered my life. I don't attribute it solely to meeting the right person at the right time, but rather to being part of Sig Tau (and to a lesser extent, Greek life). Our brotherhood provided fortuity I could find nowhere else. I never imagined this defining moment would transpire at a Geneseo bar, but I guess it's only fitting for a Sig Tau. Only through mutual friends, an open tab and a shared alma mater was I able to seize this moment to sell myself.

I've come to find there is more to being a Sig Tau than drinking more than DKs and wreaking havoc on sorority houses — all while living in squalor. It's forging relationships (over beers and broads) and sustaining those for as long as time will allow. It's engaging with all those, young and old, who have adorned the lion crest and white rose to better and support each other in various facets of our lives. It's knowing there are a select few in this world who identify as 'blue' before anything else. I look forward to alumni gatherings to come, and meeting more fascinating and inspiring gentlemen squids. I wrote an article last year clinging desperately to my four years at Geneseo, but I had no idea that those four years were only the beginning.

George Speedy (P' 70, G' 71) and Sig Tau Memories

By

George Speedy (Pledged '70. Graduated '71)

In April of 1968 I arrived home from 13 months, 4 days, 5 hours and 21 minutes of a tour in South Vietnam with the United States Marine Corps. Most people who return from a true combat situation suffer some degree of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder. I was one of those people and it is difficult to explain the degree of affliction, but that is not the point of my story.

By the summer of 1969 I was enrolled in a summer program at SUNY Geneseo to determine if I could become a full-time student in the fall. I had 3 semesters prior to my enlistment in the Corps, but not all the credits transferred since the college I was attending required a mythical (to me) 2.0 average and I did not maintain such, hence the enlistment just ahead of the draft.

I was having some trouble socializing partly because of the PTSD but exasperated by lack of confidence in my collegian abilities. While attending those classes I became acquainted with a student named Don Durbin, a tall lanky fellow from the Buffalo, N. Y. area. Now the point of my story.

Don and I became close friends that summer and he talked a lot about the Sig Tau Fraternity that he was associated with. I never pictured myself as a "Frat" type and my feelings about being a member of a group were mixed. When I returned in the fall, having surpassed the burden of proof concerning my provisional acceptance to the college, we rekindled our summer relationship. As a result, I pledged that fall and became a member of The Sigma Tau Psi Fraternity at the State University of New York at Geneseo with Don Durbin as my big brother.

I am writing this today because that friendship and the many others I had with the brothers of Sig Tau helped me shape my life and helped me become what I am today. I associated with a lot of smart, witty, energetic people in the fraternity. I think about my experiences with the fraternity frequently, some wild, some funny and some serious but all equally rewarding and most I will never forget. It made such an impact that I have maintained much of my paraphernalia including my beret, (or what's left of it since the moths have visited it frequently); my jacket, (until I realize I would never be able to wear it again and donated it to coats for kids not long ago); my paddle, (a picture of which I previously shared with Chuck and I proudly hang in my man-cave); and a memento given to my date, my wife then, at the White Rose Ball in 1971, a brandy glass pictured below. As I recall we were the only fraternity to have such an event and we dressed up in a tux and our dates in gowns and had the classiest event by a fraternity at the college. That brandy glass with the other items I have cherished over the 46 years since and they are a reminder of my time as a member of Sig Tau and bring a devious smile to my face when I look at them.

Don Durbin has passed now as have others of our brothers. They are gone but not forgotten. My life is fast passed now but I am delighted whenever I think about my fraternity days. It gives me inspiration as it did then and to the brothers with whom I made contact, wherever you are, a big THANK YOU to you all for helping me become whole again.

Oh yeah, my PTSD is doing quite nicely as well.

A Sig Tau Pledging Memory

By

Al Tolsma (Pledged '65. Graduated '67)

A memory from the early years:

The year, I believe, was 1966. It was the last day of pledging and time for the "pledge trip." The pledges, in small groups, were to be blindfolded, taken to some remote location (at night, of course) where they were to be released. They had to find their way back to the Idle Hour by some specified time.

I had a car so I was a designated driver. Me, Bill Brigham and another brother, possibly Jim Tobin, were assigned three pledges: Mike Sobczak, John Hoffman, and someone else (I can't remember who, possibly Larry Patzwald).

Bill came up with the idea to take our luckless charges to the College Camp, which I believe was in Springwater (????). Brigham was the only one of us who knew where the camp was so he became the designated navigator. We never found the camp. We finally dropped off the lads somewhere and headed for home. Not only could he not find the camp, but Hoot also couldn't find the way back.

We drove around for a while with only the stars to guide us. But wait! We are finally saved. Off in the distance we saw some folks hitchhiking. I'll bet if we picked them up they could tell us how to get back to Geneseo. Imagine our surprise when the hitchhikers turned out to be the pledges we dropped off. We drove around for a while to not get back to the Idle Hour too soon and be accused of not taking our group far enough away. When we did get back, we were the last group to return, not the first. I heard later the some of the other "trips" consisted of a ride from the campus direct to the Idle Hour.

Such was pledging in the time of the "Old Guards."

Francine Olivadoti Cronin's Memorial Service on Friday, April 21, 2017

By

Billy Manza (Pledged '86, Graduated '90)

Francine's Memorial Service was very nice. The Clio's did an amazing job with the post memorial party at the hotel. I want to congratulate the CLIO Alumni for the Amazing Tribute they had for Francine Olivadoti Cronin. The Memorial Service was a beautiful celebration of Francine's life with hundreds of people from every part of Francine's life. I hope it gave her family some solace to see how many people Francine loved and affected in her life. It was a very impressive display of respect to see so many different people there to offer their support. There was probably 300 people or more at the memorial. Then about 40 - 50 girls at the party. Myself Andy Chasen (P '85, G '88) and old Sig Ep Ben Smith and an old DK Greg who is married to one of Francine's best friends Darlene were the only guys there. Andy and I ended up staying there all night with the girls. Andy went to get a big bottle of Vodka and was making everyone Strawberry martini's. Really turned out well. I think Francine is very happy with the celebration, mostly great memories and laughing and a few tears.

The CLIO's post memorial reception was an amazing display of lifelong love, friendship and sisterhood. Francine was a Rock Star and gave the people she cared about everything she had, even taking the time to get to know a load-mouth pain in the ass like me!

She must have been very happy that the "AFTER PARTY" was a celebration of her life, the lives of all the CLIO's and their families, mostly remarkable stories, lots of laughing and fond memories and a minimal number of tears, which I believe is exactly what she would have wanted.

Well done girls, you should be very proud of such a wonderful celebration! This was a perfect example why I say pledging Sig Tau was the greatest decision I ever made, I'm sure you guys agree! (About pledging, most people probably wish I stayed in my dorm room!)

Mike Burns (Pledged '78, Graduated '82)

Chuck... ignore the negative noise, however nominal it is.... I speak for the 78-82 (+/-) crowd, your emails are ALWAYS welcome. You dogged effort does make a bunch of us shake our heads but out of total respect for your commitment and diligence.

Here's a quick story but I can't remember some of the names. (cuz I'm freaking old)

When pledging, the brothers made us come to the house, put us in pairs and assigned 2 brothers to us. They were to take us for a long ride, blindfolded, roll of toilet paper, bathing suit under jeans with no info why.

Two brothers, one brother, whose nickname was "asshole of NYS" and the other brother I can't recall. In any event, while most other brothers took their pledges to way out of the way towns, roads and destinations, our rocket scientist brothers took us straight out Rte. 63 about 8-10 miles, while blindfolded, couple hundred yards into an open field right off Rte. 63 and sat us down. Told us to wait there for 30 minutes then try to find our way back to the house. It was midafternoon. I want to say the other pledge was Bruce Vermeulen but I can't recall. We waited 30 seconds and ripped off blindfold, saw direction they headed in their car and ran to the road. About a minute later we flagged down a car, it was a fraternity member form can't remember that either, maybe DK alum. Told him the story and asked him to please get us back before the brothers that dropped us off. He busted tail and we landed at ETY house about 5 minutes before the brothers that dropped us off returned. At first the house brothers thought we were full of shit, then lost their minds in amusement when they realized what happened. And while not typically done, openly busted the balls of the two brothers in front of us. They were as pissed as embarrassed, they wanted to take us out again but the house refused and we drank and laughed about it for a very long time. (See legendary "shit stick" ---from Mike's Facebook Page...The pledging tradition of making and "using" one continues to this very day!)

All the best, Chuck!

Sig Tau: The 1980's

The Bank Street House

The lack of a house was the most glaring problem for the fraternity in 1980, and critics had foreseen the end of the fraternity because of this. Numbers were down significantly again during the "no house" years, dipping to 15 at one point. After being turned down many times by landlords who refused to rent to the fraternity, persistent brothers prevailed in persuading the owner of the Bank Street house to the fraternity. On June 1, 1980, the house at 11 Bank Street was obtained, and numbers grew steadily after that.

The house was the closest to campus on Bank Street, on the south side of the street. There were four bed rooms upstairs, and one-bedroom downstairs. An attic was built by Rick "Jake" Jankun (P '81, G '84), adding two more spaces. That allowed 11 brothers to live in the house altogether.

The best part of the house was the location—you could crawl to and from the bars and campus. Another thing that was funny about that house was the "beer glacier." Brothers would have kegs on the front porch, and, understandably, a lot of beer was spilled, and ran off the porch. During the winter months, this run-off would freeze and slowly grow with each subsequent party, creating a frozen yellow mass that brothers named the "beer glacier."

The worst part was the poor heat, the bad plumbing, and the landlord. The shower would regularly back-up, leaving brothers to shower ankle-deep in a pool of water. There was also a large rat that lived above the second floor. The brothers dubbed it "The Baby Cow" due to its enormous size. The "Cow" however, was never seen—only heard late at night. Although the AD house was right across the street, the fraternity continued to associate with the Phi Lambs and the Ago's. However, brothers showed no bias to other sororities.

Brothers rented the house May 31, 1985, when the house was condemned. Apparently, some weight-bearing walls had been knocked down to build the attic, causing major structural problems.

Once again, Sig Tau was moved back into the dorms. The house has since been renovated and is the new home for the Geneseo Foundation. See infamous "letter of complaint" below from the Vice President of Student Services and Staff Relations:

RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED

30 April 1982

Michael Burns
President
Sigma Tau Psi
11 Bank Street
Geneseo, NY 14454

Dear Mr. Burns:

I have received numerous complaints concerning the activities in and around the house you are responsible for on Bank Street. I have also personally observed some of the childish and disgusting behavior exhibited on the sidewalks outside that house.

I hold the fraternity totally responsible for the behavior of the individuals living in that house and any visitors that are there as guests. In the future your members will not be seen outside unless clothed appropriately. There will be no drinking of alcoholic beverages on the sidewalks or porch of that house. There will be no loud music played that interferes with classes in College buildings that surround that house. The fraternity will no longer be an embarrassment to the campus tours passing through that area or with prospective students and their parents.

If I observe any of the above behavior during the rest of this semester, during the summer or next year I will withdraw the recognition of this fraternity.

Sincerely,

Ronald P. Satryb

Events in the 80's

In the 1980's, Sig Tau's continued to be involved on campus. Many brothers continued to be involved in lacrosse, basketball and other sports. Sig Tau held its famed Chicken Wing Eating Contest for the American Cancer Society each spring at the Spring Weekend Carnival. Large crowds gathered to see brothers and other contestants scoff down a plate of chicken wings during the messy event. An enjoyable time was always had, and it was for a worthy cause. The event was occasionally co-sponsored with the Alpha Kappa Phi sorority, who Sig Tau held other events with too.

The Inn Between, and Gentleman Jim's, co-owned by brothers Tom Basher (P '72, G '74) and Frank Adonnino (P '72, G '75) became popular night time sports for Sig Tau's during the 1980's Brothers drank in the infamous "corner" of the IB, on the right-hand side, by the side door. This, the prime location in the bar, has been held by the fraternity since that time. *{From Chronicle of Sigma Tau Psi: A History of the Fraternity, published 1997, Editor Brian M. Chuck Chaffee (P' 76, G'79) and Sig Tau Memories

By

Chuck Chaffee (Pledged '76, Graduated '79)

Thanks for taking the lead with the Newsletter. While I'm often too busy to attend the various reunions, etc., I do enjoy reading about them and the other activities/stories/etc.

Charles (Chuck) Chaffee – Pledged in spring 1976/Graduated in spring 1979

After working 15 years in the food service industry – right out of college, I made the switch to education. In my 23+ years in the field of education, I've had the privilege of working as a Business Education teacher, athletic director, principal and currently I am a School Superintendent for a small district in Central New York. This August, my wife Annette and I will celebrate our 35th wedding anniversary. I have three children – 2 girls and 1 boy. I hope to retire in three years and "winter" on the West Coast of Florida (North Port).

My time at Geneseo and the three years I spent as a member of Sig Tau were fantastic. I can remember (vaguely) spending many a night at the bar owned by fellow Sig Tau brothers (The Inn Between). We had some great parties with our sister sorority, the Agos, as well as with the Phi Lambs and Arethusan. The Phi Lamb derby was always fun and I recall eating a goldfish, or two, at the end of the event. I most certainly could go on for days about all the GREAT times I had at Geneseo with our fellow Greeks, but let me sum it up with a simple – Thanks to all my brothers at Sig Tau!! While I may have lost contact, I haven't lost my love for the Blue & White!! GO SIG TAU!!

What ETY was like in My Era '81- '84"

By

Jim Pittz (Pledged '81. Graduated '84)

I pledged in '81. Graduated in '84. Those years must be ranked as some of the best times ever. What a group of guys, in fact a dozen or so of us still get together a couple of times a year. Step into the time machine and it is like it never changed.

Back in the day, the DK's were always the dick frat. We had the great fortunate luck of always being able to kick their ass in whatever intramural sport we played. We still lived on Bank St., although my graduation year was the last year for that. Every night, or so it seemed, there was the after-hours at the house – that would still be going when the students with no lives would be walking by the house going to class. And like clockwork, every night Geneseo's finest would come and give Jake (Rick Jankun, our president) the $25 fine for breaking the noise ordinance.

Fat Augies – what can I say, that was the bar where we all worked at one time or another, me I was in the kitchen cooking wings a couple of nights a week and when Philly Dog, (Phil Connery) wasn't spinning the tunes, I would take over for him in the booth one night a week. That was also where we would hold the official "unofficial" fund raising events. See, they were "unofficial" because we were almost always (or so it seemed) on some sort of IGC shit list so they put us on probation with no fund-raising events. Somehow (wink, wink) word would get out that there was a $5 entrance fee with wings and beer specials going on, and it just happened that we were all wearing colors that night. Everyone worked there: Jake, Tubby, Ticky, Philly, Burnsy, Robbie, myself (Pitzer), Nooch, Ghoul, Supe, and I am sure I am missing a couple of others.

The HOUSE was a life unto itself, the only fridge in the house had a keg in it, a foosball table took up most of the Dining Room(?), someone was always playing on it, mostly while watching Tom and Jerry and having a cold one – sure beat going to class!

A party every day! One memorable morning had myself and Buckley on the porch watching all the poor souls go to class, when a beer delivery guy to the Vital Spot called frantically for us, it seems a side cork broke out of a keg and beer was spilling everywhere, he calls for us to bring whatever we had. We ran into the kitchen and grabbed every pot, pan, bucket that could hold beer. The first ETY Beer-Pot porch party.

On another occasion, we had gotten a canister of 4-5 smoke bombs – army issued, I believe. Well if memory serves correct we went up to a certain other frat house and let them fly – man, red smoke poured out every window in the house—which was great because it happened to match their colors! Guys and girls came out covered in red soot hacking their lungs out! God that was so funny!

Many of us still get together each year on the last weekend in July for golf, libations, stories and horse racing at Saratoga. We'd love to expand the group. Springfest/Alumni Weekend 2017 Sig Tau Alumni Keg Party at Ago House!

April 29, 2017

As you all know by now, The Sigma Tau Psi Alumni and Friends group raised $1,480 to help the current Sig Taus celebrate the next three alumni/current Sig Tau Alumni Parties for Springfest 2017, Homecoming 2017 and Springfest 2018!

The first event Springfest/Alumni Weekend on Saturday, April 29th was a remarkable success! Everyone had a wonderful time. The current Sig Taus greeted us with great warmth and were extremely appreciative of the donations.

See the picture below with us "older Sig Taus" and the current senior Sig Taus! Chuck Curatalo led the first of what we hope to be many Toasts to the Sig Tau Founders and Alumni. He thanked all those for coming and the Founders and the Alumni who graciously donated to this event. Chuck also added these personal words:

I just want to say a few words about our founder the late Jack Sheehan. Sig Tau was Jack's inspiration and he would be very proud to know that it exists this very day and hopefully for a long time to come! Jack! I and everybody else miss you but we know you are in a better place. Jack, "This one's for you!"

Sigma Tau Psi: The 1990's

The Tree House

On June 1, 1989, brothers signed a lease with Mr. and Mrs. Youngblut, parents of brothers Mike Youngblut ('90) and Dave Youngblut ('92), for the house at 10 Court Street, and the fraternity has resided there ever since. (NOTE: When this was written in 1997 that was the case; but circa 2005 the house was purchased by the next door Living County Sheriff's Office. The house was demolished and the land remains vacant to date!) The Tree House earned its name because of its original deep brown color, and unique construction. The house holds 15 brothers in 8 rooms—2 singles, 5 doubles and a triple. The basement served as a kitchen and a den when the fraternity first moved into the house. Since then, a few transformations have occurred. The basement kitchen and den have been converted into a full-time bar and party room. Beer now flows freely from a faucet in the sink, hooked to "The Kegerator" next to it. The house now has a two-story deck in the back that is perfect for barbecuing and watching the crowds at open fraternity parties. The deck also provides easy access to the back roof of the house—the scene of many escapades. The Youngbluts plan to wrap the deck around to the front of the house in the summer of 1997.

The large back yard of the house allows the fraternity to host tremendous open parties in the spring and early fall. Sig Tau opens have attracted crowds of over 500 in recent years. The brothers also host the annual Sig Tau Clam Bake, first held in the spring of 1995. This all-day event takes place on a Sunday, and involves clams, beer, a live band, and port-potties. The fraternity has made a substantial profit from this venture and showed the campus how to party. {From Chronicle of Sigma Tau

IN MEMORIAM:

Wayne Crawford
1947-2016

It was recently learned that ETY Brother Wayne Crawford passed away last year on April 30, 2016. Wayne transferred to Florida University in my senior year at Geneseo in 1967. He went on to become a successful actor, writer, and producer of movies and TV Shows and Series. He is most famous for being the writer and producer of the 1983 hit "Cult" movie "Valley Girl" which helped launch this acting career of Nicholas Cage. Wayne had many film and TV credits including several TV series. He also had a successful career producing and hosting documentaries on Africa and its wildlife on cable channels. He lived in Africa for twelve years. He left behind his wife Olean and children, Katerina, Nealy and Lance.

While in Sig Tau at Geneseo, he took an active part in trying to find a house for the fraternity. He was a drama major and a talented actor who took part in several college theatre productions.

One day in the late 90's or the early millennium I saw Wayne in a TV movie called "American Cop". He had the starring role and looked very familiar. In a while it dawned on me that he was Wayne Crawford from my Geneseo Sig Tau days. I look him up on the net and that's how I found out about "Valley Girl" and the rest of his successful career. Sorry to say I've never seen that movie. His series were interesting and he was a good host and guide. He was very knowledgeable about African wildlife and fauna. Rest in peace, Wayne. Your work will live on forever!

SOME INTERESTING (AND FUNNY) RESEARCH AND FACTS FROM BOB HUSSEY (Charter Member '63, G '67)

In Lebanon, men are legally allowed to have sex with animals, but the animals must be female. Having sexual relations with a male animal is punishable by death. (Like THAT makes sense.)

~~~~~~~~*

In Bahrain, a male doctor may legally examine a woman's genitals, but is prohibited from looking directly at them during the examination. He may only see their reflection in a mirror. (Do they look different reversed?)

~~~~~~~~*

Muslims are banned from looking at the genitals of a corpse. This also applies to undertakers. The sex organs of the deceased must be covered with a brick or piece of wood at all times. (A brick?) (well, sorta get the brick for men..??)

~~~~~~~~*

The penalty for masturbation in Indonesia is decapitation. Enuf said....

~~~~~~~~*

There are men in Guam whose full-time job is to travel the countryside and deflower young virgins, who pay them for the privilege of having sex for the first time. Reason: Under Guam law, it is expressly forbidden for virgins to marry.

(Let's just think for a minute: Is there any job anywhere else in the world that even comes close to this?)

~~~~~~~~*

In Hong Kong, a betrayed wife is legally allowed to kill her adulterous husband, but may only do so with her bare hands. The husband's illicit lover, on the other hand, may be killed in any manner desired. (Ah! Justice!)

~~~~~~~~*

Topless saleswomen are legal in Liverpool, England - but only in tropical fish stores. (But of course!)

~~~~~~~~*

In Cali, Colombia, a woman may only have sex with her husband, and the first time this happens, her mother must be in the room to witness the act. (Makes one shudder at the thought.)

~~~~~~~~*

In Santa Cruz, Bolivia, it is illegal for a man to have sex with a woman and her daughter at the same time. (I presume this was a big enough problem that they had to pass this law?)

~~~~~~~~*

In Maryland, it is illegal to sell condoms from vending machines with one exception: Condoms may be dispensed from a vending machine only in places where alcoholic beverages are sold for consumption on the premises.' (Is this a great country or what?)

Well... not as great as Guam!

~~~~~~~~*

Banging your head against a wall uses 150 calories an hour. (Who volunteers for these tests?)

~~~~~~~~*

The Ant can lift 50 times its own weight, can pull 30 times its own weight and always falls over on its right side when intoxicated. (From drinking little bottles of ???). (Did our Government pay for this research??)

~~~~~~~~*

Butterflies taste with their feet. (Ah, geez.)

~~~~~~~~*

An Ostrich's eye is bigger than its brain. (I know some people like that.)

~~~~~~~~~

Starfish don't have brains. (I know some people like that, too.)

~~~~~~~~~

And, the best for last?

Turtles can breathe through their ass. (And I thought I had bad breath in the morning!)

Thank you all for reading this.

If you need to reach me in the future, I will be in Guam!

Sig Tau Songs

The Sigma Tau Psi Chicken Song

Wheelin' at a party, slamming down some brews,
Looking for the fat chicks is something we don't do,
Always out to get it
Looking to drop a seed,
Clio's, Ago's, Phi Lambs, but not no D Phi E's.

Chorus:
She was choking on my chicken,
Choking on my chicken,
Choking on my chicken 'till my balls turned white and blue.

According to IGC the Phi Kap's have the brains,
But as we know and so should you,
They're so fucking lame!
Omega's on the other hand, like each other's butts,
But Sig Tau's, on the contrary, fk all the horny sluts,
(Chorus)

Ask the Butts and they'll say, "We're made of bonds of steal"
But as for Sig Tau Brothers, we're the real deal!
The moral of the story is not whose best or why,
It's just the size of our penises, Sigma Tau Psi!
(Chorus)

Michael Guzzo (P '90, G '93) (Created in 1990)

A smile beyond compare
Two ruby lips to kiss you

She's Sigma Tau's own sweetheart
She's Sigma Tau's White Rose

Tune: On Top of Old Smokey

The Whore Song (Sig Tau Fight Song) (Censored Version)

We are the men of Sig Tau Whore Corp
We are the men that girls pay more for,
Satisfaction guaranteed,
We provide every need,
In the ditches and the bushes,
You can hear the grunts and pushes,
But the girls don't think we're tramps,
'Cause we give them trading stamps,
Fk, fk, fk!

PLANNING FOR SIG TAU'S 55TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION AT REUNION 2018

BE PREPARED FOR INFORMATION REGARDING PLANNING FOR SIG TAU'S 55TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION AT REUNION 2018 AT GENESEO, JUNE 1ST—JUNE 2ND TRACY GAGNIER AND THE REST OF THE GENESEO ALUMNI RELATIONS STAFF WILL BE SEEKING OUR INPUT!!! HELP BY VOLUNTEERING TO BE ON THE COMMITTEE! We should have at least one of each serving on the committee: An "An Old Guard", A "Middle Guard" and a "Younger Guard"!

Thank You!

I want all of you wonderful bros to know I am feeling much better! Thank you for your kind comments and well wishes! I had a bad case of bronchitis for several weeks and just thought it was my allergies! I am recovering!!!! Good thing I caught it in time—it could have developed in something more serious. Last time it did...five awful days in the hospital with pneumonia!

The Bulletins will hopefully go on longer!!! But I will have to cut them down in size and frequency to eliminate some back muscle strain. I am not sure that after the Newsletter for Reunion 2018, our 55th Anniversary if Newsletters will continue...I hope so!

We'll have to wait and see. One never knows what the future will bring, especially at 72! But right now I'm feeling pretty good and chirper! I hope you all feel the same!

There shouldn't be anymore bulletins coming out until a few weeks before Homecoming which will take place on September 23rd, 2017 in Geneseo. But you should be hearing from Tracy Gagnier who will be seeking volunteers for the 55th Planning Committee around them.

"Negative Noise"

The external "negative noise" from a Sig Tau has recently been explained. A recent email from a recent Sig Tau graduate explains the situation:

*Chuck, As I hope you know, I graduated over a year ago, so I do not have a say in the affairs of current brothers. The email that you're referring to in your post script message was from a rogue graduate who acted indecently and alone. Please disregard that foul-mouthed email as the brother in question is an ahole and not in our good graces. I hope you know that many graduates whole heartedly agree with Dylan Gallagher's email to you. You have done and continue to do fantastic work with the newsletter and other matters.

This has been one of the most FUN issues that I ever had the pleasure of editing! I hope you Enjoyed, Reminisced and above all LAUGHED! Life is short!

Cheers and Special Thanks to all the Contributors!

Chuck
